TRADERS PROTEST AS MARKET OPERATOR PROMOTES DEMOLITION OF MARKET DESPITE SERIOUS, ONGOING ALLEGATIONS OF HARASSMENT, BULLYING & RACISM

Quarterbridge and its sister company, Market Asset Management, has yet again been given the backing of Grainger plc. This is despite the serious, ongoing allegations of market traders over harassment, victimisation and bullying by Quarterbridge/Market Asset Management that were repeatedly brought to the attention of Grainger plc, Haringey Council and Transport for London.

Traders were left shocked and upset when an email celebrating the CPO decision was sent to them by Market Asset Management boss Jonathan Owen the day after the announcement in which he invited them to a presentation on Tuesday 12th February. The vast majority of traders chose to protest outside instead.

Ben Nyerende, market trader and market steering group member said: "We peacefully protested tonight outside the Latin Village as Grainger boss and market steering group chair Jonathan Kiddle spoke alongside the market operator, Jonathan Owen, at a poorly attended meeting to celebrate the prospect of demolishing the market which will also demolish our livelihoods in the process. Sadly, we have had to endure such disrespect for years."
